

Current Bird Sightings	Location (see map on back)	11/5/10
Eagles and other Raptors
3. Bald and Golden Eagles 7. Great Horned Owl	# 3 Bald and Golden Eagles have been seen along the Tule Lake Auto Tour Route; most observations have been in the first 5 miles of the route from the Hill Road turnoff #7 A single Great Horned Owl has been seen in a rock crevasse 8.4 miles south of the refuge visitor center along Hill Road
Waterfowl
1. Large flocks of Snow, Canada and White-fronted Geese and dabbling ducks (N. Pintail, Green-winged Teal and American Wigeon) with a variety of diving ducks 2. White-fronted and Canada Geese and dabbling ducks 4. Diving ducks (Canvasback, Ring-necked, Ruddy) 5. Geese, Northern Pintail and other dabbling ducks 9. Dabbling ducks (Mallard, Gadwall, wigeon and teal) 10. Large numbers of Canvasbacks and other diving ducks, as well as and coots and dabbling ducks.	# 1 Thousands of waterfowl are visible along the south shore of Sump 1B from the refuge auto tour route and from the observation Kiosk near this location. Several species of diving ducks have been seen along the north edge of Sump 1B from the auto tour route. # 2 Many geese and dabbling ducks are visible from Highway 161 in flooded areas in Unit 3 # 4 Seen in the narrow channel between in the large water areas visible from the tour route # 5 In shallow water areas of the White Lake unit of Lower Klamath Refuge # 9 Discovery Marsh walking trail across from the refuge visitor center #10 Observed in Sump 1A from the Tule Lake auto tour route
Other Birds of Interest
6. White and Golden-crowned Sparrows, Ruby-crowned Kinglet and Yellow-rumped Warbler. 9 Marsh Wren, several sparrow species, Black-crowned Night Heron, Dowitchers, Wilson's Snipe, and yellowlegs 10 Grebes (Western, Clarks, Eared, Horned and Pied-billed), herons and gulls (including a few Bonaparte's Gulls)	# 6 Observed at the Tule Lake Refuge visitor center feeder and trees around the buildings # 9 Discovery Marsh walking trail across from the refuge visitor center #10 Observed in scattered locations in Sump 1A from the Tule Lake auto tour route

